10 Ways to raise money for KID

1. Make some change

- Ask 5-10 people to save their change for three months and donate the proceeds to KID.
- Distribute KID fundraising cans at local businesses, community centers, etc.

2. Hold a neighborhood or school bake sale

3. Hold a weekend car wash (dogwash, plant sale, etc.) for donations

4. Give it yourself

- Use your giving power to jumpstart others – hold a Challenge Campaign by giving $20 yourself and then challenge 5-10 friends to match your donation.

  -Make it a regular thing: Give $10 a month for KID's 10th anniversary

  -Consider tribute donations to honor special occasions or birthdays.

  -Shop and donate: Visit www.KidsInDanger.org/donate/index.asp to donate to KID when you make purchases on Amazon.com, search and shop through GoodSearch.com or to donate the value of your old car to KID!

5. Become a KID representative in your community

Sign up to become a KID representative at www.KidsInDanger.org./volunteer and with materials from KID you can:

- Solicit small businesses, churches, synagogues and service clubs for donations of $1000
- Hold a house party. Invite other parents, friends or family, give a brief talk about KID and ask guests to consider a gift of $25-$200, then hand out envelopes so they can drop them on the way out.
- At your place of worship: Ask to have a "second collection" for KID, and then ask to give a little talk about KID's work before congregation.

6. Run a marathon, or participate in a 5K walk and use it as an opportunity to raise money for KID. Do it in honor of a child in your life

7. Conduct a letter writing campaign. KID has sample letters that can be sent incorporating your personal message encouraging people to support KID's work.

8. Talk to your human resources office at work – get Kids In Danger added to your company's matching gift program or workplace giving program.

9. Have a special KID day at a local business where some percentage of the sales goes to KID – this can be a bakery or restaurant or store. Make sure it is well publicized.

10. Check out KID's Wish List (www.KidsInDanger.org/donate/index.asp) and try to get those items donated.
