

Consumer Groups Applaud U.S. Senate Confirmation of Mary Boyle for Commissioner of Consumer Product Safety Commission

Statement by Consumer Federation of America and Kids In Danger

For immediate release
June 22, 2022

Contact:

Rachel Weintraub, CFA, rweintraub@consumerfed.org; (202) 904-4953
Nancy Cowles, KID, nancy@kidsindanger.org; (312) 218-5593

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Consumer Federation of America (CFA) and Kids In Danger (KID) applaud the U.S. Senate for confirming President Biden's nominee for Commissioner of the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC), Mary Boyle.

Mary Boyle has significant CPSC experience, having most recently served as Executive Director of the agency.

Last year, the Senate confirmed President Biden's nominations of Richard Trumka Jr. for Commissioner and Alex Hoehn-Saric as Chairman of the CPSC. Now, the agency can operate fully with five commissioners. The CPSC has not had a full commission (five commissioners) since October 2019.

We look forward to working with Ms. Boyle and her team to protect families from hazards such as unstable dressers, unsafe infant sleep products, ingestion hazards like magnets and button batteries, and more.

###

Kids In Danger \(KID\) is a nonprofit organization dedicated to protecting children by fighting for product safety. Our mission is to save lives by enhancing transparency and accountability through safer product development, better education, and stronger advocacy for children.

Consumer Federation of America \(CFA\) is an association of nearly 250 non-profit consumer organizations that was established in 1968 to advance the consumer interest through research, advocacy, and education.